

Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

The United Way of Chatham-Kent (UWOCK) is currently searching for a Chief Executive Officer. This role is responsible for the successful leadership and fiscal integrity of the organization according to the strategic direction set by its Board of Directors. The scope of this position is broad, requiring the CEO to lead the essential functions of: Community Impact, Resource Development, Strategic Management and Organization Leadership.

We are looking for a seasoned executive with a minimum of 5 years' experience as a CEO or Executive Director of a not-for-profit or from the social service sector. Also, a university degree in business, social work or other related discipline is preferred.

The ideal candidate possesses a high level of broad business and collaborative leadership skills. He/she/they have a track record of working in partnership with a range of community leaders from all sectors and grassroots networks to build trust and improve the lives of the community's most vulnerable members. Doing this while growing and protecting the reputation of a registered charity is key. The successful candidate will be a senior leader that champions change, creates high performing teams and truly loves to help people by facilitating community engagement and stewardship at all levels.

This position is located in Chatham-Kent, ON, and we require that the CEO live/relocate to this vicinity. Although work is usually completed from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday to Friday; non-traditional hours such as evenings and weekends are required. This role also requires periodic travel.

Please send your CV with a cover letter stating your salary expectations and relocation requirements to Chatham-Kent (if applicable) to kair4816@gmail.com. Candidates will be required to provide a police clearance (vulnerable sector), credit check and proof of credentials.
